

Sign up for our new boys only Dance Attack and boys only ballet classes starting in September

Dance Attack (ages 6 - 11) Saturdays 2:45 – 3:45pm

A high energy and fun rollercoaster of a class introducing boys to an array of different dance styles. Each class begins with a unique warm-up based on circuit training, aerobic, strengthening and stretching exercises. The bulk of the class will be spent learning and creating choreography in varying dance styles and techniques which will include: street, acrobatics, jazz, ballet, latin, ballroom and contemporary. There will also be exciting performance opportunities for the Dance Attack Crew!

Boys Ballet (ages 6 - 11) Saturdays 3:45 – 4:45pm

A free-work ballet class from beginner level to Ballet 3 level. The class is an opportunity for boys to learn the techniques of classical ballet. They will develop their strength, coordination, athleticism and discover the exciting male repertoire of steps. Male ballet is characterized by the dynamic energy of the turns and the thrill of the big jumps.

The classes are taught by Ben Garner ARAD, Dip PDTD, AISTD

Ben's professional career as a ballet dancer included working with 3 British ballet companies – Lewis London Ballet Company, Ballet Creations of London and Adonais Ballet Company.

During his career as a dancer in musical theatre he was in the cast of 8 West End productions including Cats, Phantom of the Opera, Oklahoma! and Chitty, Chitty, Bang, Bang. His film and TV appearances include the Phantom of the Opera film, Blue Peter and the Royal Variety Show.

He has taught at vocational dance schools including Tring Park School for Performing Arts, Urdang Academy, Young Dancers Academy, Guildford School of Acting and Stageworks Studios. He was the Company Manager and more recently the Marketing Manager of the award-winning English Youth Ballet. Known as 'Mr Ben' - he has taught at and been associated with West London School of Dance for over 20 years.
